

Chalet Chef

Why should you work for Highlife?

This is a great opportunity to run your own kitchen and a unique opportunity to work in the French Alps with Ireland's No.1 ski chalet holiday company.

You must be prepared to work hard but you will be rewarded with a competitive package and a schedule that will allow you to enjoy lots of ski time and free time.

Who are you?

To be considered for this role you must be a qualified/experienced chef with the ability to deliver a high standard of food for parties of between 8 & 17 people all eating together.

You have a great way with food and with people and excel in producing excellent meals and in creating a lovely atmosphere for all your guests. To help you to do this, you will be assisted by a chalet host(s).

You are reliable, punctual, well presented and have an eye for detail. You may already ski/snowboard but if not, you will have lots of time to get to experience and enjoy this side of life in the Alps.

What will you have to do?

You will prepare breakfast and a 3-course evening meal on 6 days per week and be responsible for menu planning, shopping, budget control, and food presentation for your guests.

Duties include

- Design and plan menus and ensure all guest's dietary requirements are understood and catered for
- Manage your stocks, plan and manage your budget, and purchase ingredients each week
- Prepare and help serve arrival day lunch, and then breakfasts, homemade treats, piste treats and a 3-course evening meal to an excellent standard six days a week, with the emphasis on fresh and varied ingredients
- Prepare children's earlier dinner when requested
- Keep your kitchen clean, assist in keeping your dining room clean and inviting, and light a fire each day

What's in it for me?

You must be prepared to work hard but you will be rewarded with a competitive package and a schedule that will allow you to enjoy lots of ski time and free time as well as plenty of great benefits including:

- Return air travel and transfers from Ireland/UK to/from your resort
- Centrally-located accommodation
- Meals are provided when you are working
- Ski pack for the season including ski insurance, full area lift pass and your skis/snowboard/boots
- Your family will be given a 20% discount on Highlife holidays (exclusive of flights and ski packs)
- Competitive salary and the opportunity to earn good tips.

You must be available from mid-November 2017 to late April 2018 and will be based in the French Alps for all of that time.

We look forward to talking to you about an exciting season that lies ahead!

Interviews will be held in our Dublin offices. Please email a CV and brief cover letter to vacancies@highlife.ie
