Chalet Amelie

Combine a love of skiing with a love of fine wines by taking yourself off on a Highlife holiday this season. The venue is Chalet Amelie in the alpine town of Méribel. Situated a mere one hundred metres from the ski lift, guests can saunter out the front door and be on piste in a matter of moments. Of course, this holiday isn't just about skiing. Highlife's team of chefs and wine experts will be on hand throughout your stay, offering off-piste gourmet experiences utilising the produce of the area. A must for those of us who prefer the 'après' part of our ski experiences.
